

CIA Screening Process

¹ Submitting a Preliminary Consultation Information Request (PCIR) prior to CIA application will help gather potential connection complexity information before investing in a CIA.

² A CIA application is complete if the information it contains is sufficient to allow a distributor to complete a CIA.

³ A secondary check to address changes between the preliminary consultation and the CIA application.

Figure 3: CIA Screening Process